

You can help

The Court hears about 600 cases of dependency, neglect and abuse each year. Therefore, the Court is always looking for volunteers who are Stark and Carroll County residents and twenty-one (21) years of age or older. You can contact the Court by calling 330-451-7282.

Requirements

The volunteers are required to complete an application, a screening interview, agree to volunteer for a minimum of one year, attend a series of training workshops, attend further in-service workshops, and to utilize the manual written for the Program. Applicants will be screened and selected on the basis of availability, dedication, reliability, and willingness to learn.

Program Beginnings

The CASA/Guardian ad litem Program began as a result of a need to better represent the rights and interests of abused, neglected and dependent children in Stark County. The Junior League of Canton, Ohio, Inc. in cooperation with Stark County Family Court, established the Volunteer Guardian Ad litem Program in 1982.

ROLE

A CASA Volunteer is an advocate who will make an independent evaluation after investigation as to what is truly in the child's best interests, both in terms of the present and also long-term planning. The CASA Volunteer will present this recommendation to the Court at a hearing.

TEAM CASA

Each CASA Volunteer is part of a team that fulfills the requirements of Ohio law. Ohio law requires that a CASA/GAL be appointed for a child when an agency, such as Stark County Job and Family Services, files a complaint alleging abuse or neglect, or when a motion for permanent custody is requested.

RESPONSIBILITIES

1. Investigate the child's life by interacting with the:
 - child
 - caseworker
 - parents
 - foster parents
 - possible adoptive parents
 - school officials
 - other important parties
2. Gather all the facts, evaluate them, and prepare an objective and thoughtful report of your recommendations.
3. Present this report in oral and written format to the Court at a hearing and advocate for the child's rights and best interests.

WHAT IT TAKES

To become a CASA Volunteer, it takes:

- completing initial classroom or independent training
- yearly follow-up training thereafter
- a say in matching with a child needing your service
- independence to set your own visits, according to program standards
- commitment of one year
- 5 hours average each month (for meeting your "CASA Kid" and report writing)

"A child needs an extra ear to hear them, a voice to speak for them and an extra caring heart to help keep them safe."
