

Press Release

Sarah Hegnauer, Communications Administrator
330-451-8086 / Sarah.Hegnauer@jfs.ohio.gov

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

June 3, 2022

FATHERHOOD COALITION DISTRIBUTING FREE TICKETS TO PRO FOOTBALL HOF FATHERHOOD FESTIVAL

Canton, Ohio - The Stark County Fatherhood Coalition, a nonprofit organization administered through Stark County Job and Family Services, is distributing free tickets to the Pro Football Hall of Fame's Fatherhood Festival on Friday, June 17, 2022. Tickets are available to Stark County fathers and their children.

The festival will take place at the Tom Benson Hall of Fame Stadium and will feature interactive games, awards, and a screening of the movie American Underdog, The Kurt Warner Story. The stadium will open at 5 p.m., with movie screening to begin at 7 p.m.

Fathers and male role models are invited to register for tickets by calling Matt Lytle, Program Administrator for the Fatherhood Coalition, at 330-451-8477. Up to three children are permitted with each adult. Mothers and stepmothers are encouraged to attend.

The movie American Underdog: The Kurt Warner Story is based on the life of NFL MVP and Hall of Fame quarterback Kurt Warner. It tells the story of his journey from working at a grocery store to becoming a football star. The cast includes actors Zachary Levi, Anna Paquin, and Haydan Zallar.

The mission of the Stark County Fatherhood Coalition is to encourage fathers to take an active and positive role in their child's life, and to promote and sponsor activities designed to strengthen families. If you would like additional information about the organization, please visit StarkJFS.org or follow them on Facebook at www.Facebook.com/StarkCountyFatherhoodCoalition.

###